THE SUMMER REVOLUTION LIFE REVIEW KIT
> Be the architect of your life

Welcome to the Summer Revolution Life Review Kit. Wherever you are in the world and whatever your circumstances, congratulations for diving in here. It's so easy to go careening from one year to the next without acknowledging what you've achieved and experienced, or considering how you want to shape the year ahead. And yet, living consciously and intentionally is powerful!

I'm always amazed at how much happens in a year and of course many of us are feeling the effects of so much change, challenge and uncertainty. Even in a 'normal' year we often underestimate how much we've achieved and tend to focus more on what we didn't get around to.

The world is a different place from the one we lived in when I first created this kit eight years ago. And yet, the art of living intentionally and designing our life is as relevant as ever. We're just on a different playing field – one with exceptional challenges but also many seen and unseen opportunities. The biggest opportunity is to grow ourselves and learn.

It seems important right now to:

- Look after our wellbeing and protect our energy carefully.
- Acknowledge how we've met the challenges of the year, where we're stronger now within ourselves and how we want to further strengthen ourselves on all levels of self.
- Clarify our values and what really matters.
- Consciously live more fully in the moment and more intentionally every day.
- Connect more and more fully with our sense of agency and personal power, with clarity and intuition.
- Stay well connected to each other and support each other.
- Be our own inner architect.

This year I've tailored the kit with this in mind. It's designed to help you connect to what's really important to you, to be inspired, and to create a life you love. And if that calls for a bit of a life revolution, go for it!

Instructions

What you will need:

- 1 x Summer Revolution Life Review Kit – printed out in hardcopy
- Pens/markers
- Your diary or calendar to review the year that's been
- Two hours of time to yourself; uninterrupted, peaceful and inspiring
(Note: This might seem like a HUGE amount of time, especially if you are a parent or caregiver or even a rather immersed business owner. It is not. You may just not be used to 'asking for' this time for yourself. Start now.)
- A quiet, uninterrupted space in which to think and relax.

This Kit is really a journey. Take your time to complete each section, in the order in which they are numbered.

My Year In Review

> Be the architect of your life

Start with a stocktake of the year you've had. Take some time to fill in each month with the things you've achieved, experienced and learned. It works well to go through your diary or calendar to remind yourself. Include activities as well as milestones, changes made, challenges handled, projects started or completed, family events and anything else that has been significant for you.

My Year In Review

THE SUMMER REVOLUTION LIFE REVIEW KIT
> Be the architect of your life

It's amazing how much can happen in a year, especially in an epic year of change and challenge. Capture any trips you've made, any changes that occurred at home or work, your wins such as a promotion, first date or wedding anniversary.

JULY	AUGUST	SEPTEMBER	OCTOBER	NOVEMBER	DECEMBER

The year that's been

You've handled and achieved so much. Take a moment to reflect on this year through the eyes of compassion for and acknowledgement of yourself.

This year I met the following challenges/I overcame ...

My biggest learnings have been ...

I up-levelled within myself in these ways ...

(In what ways have you grown personally and professionally perhaps in ways you hadn't predicted or thought possible?)

This year I'm going down in history for ...

(What are you doing down in your own personal history for? What were your 'hero moments' this year? Managing a restructure, moving to working from home overnight AGAIN, leading a team through profound change, surviving a period of unemployment, supporting your kids through a global pandemic?)

Values + Gratitude

Explore freshly what matters to you and what inspiration you draw on.

How have my values changed or clarified this year?

What matters to me most right now?

What am I most grateful for?

Who or what inspired me this year?

My Energy

What if our energy is even more important than time or money? We can only be our best self when we can master our energy. To front-foot that for the year ahead, how do you want to proactively manage and protect your energy?

How have your energy levels been this year and why? For each – How has your _____ energy been? What has affected it (+ or -)? What external and internal (thoughts, emotions etc) factors have impacted it?

PHYSICAL ENERGY

MENTAL ENERGY

EMOTIONAL ENERGY

SPIRITUAL ENERGY

What gives me energy? What fills me up?

What takes energy from me? What drains or disrupts me?

What am I going to change or do more/less of in light of this?

Being In-powered

See how some reflection can help you move the dial toward a little more empowerment, or what we could call being in-powered.

What has felt most out of your control this year?

In what ways do you want to grow in the year ahead?

Where are you pleased that you have taken control of for yourself?

In what ways do you want to be able to support and show up for others?

Where do you want to take more control and responsibility now?
What will that do for you?

And ... What is on your 'bucket list' that you want to put onto your to-do list this year?!

An Intentional Life: What matters now?

What's important to you now? What do you want life to look like this year? And who do you want to be?

Vision for Self: What do you want for yourself in the year ahead? What do you want to experience or make happen? How do you want to be being in yourself? Who do you want to be? Describe that person and all they will have experienced and achieved in the year ahead.

Vision for Life: What do you want for yourself in the year ahead? What do you want life to look like? What's important to you about your lifestyle and daily life? What would that look like across home/work/health/ relationships etc?

An Intentional Life: Making it Happen

Creating quality action around your intentions is where the rubber meets the road and you can start moving towards the reality you have envisioned. Sometimes it doesn't even take a lot to get there – think 'quality action' over quantity. Set out your actions. Do one at a time. Watch your intentions unfold ...

What will help make this happen? What key actions do you want to take towards this?

What resources/support/collaboration/plans will help make this happen? →

What are you most excited about? ← yourself and your life just the way

you want it.*
